The Sts. Peter & Paul Ukrainian Orthodox Church Bulletin is published weekly by The Senior Chapter of the Ukrainian Orthodox League

Editor: Michael Kapeluck

Bulletin Submissions are due by 8:00 am Thursday morning. Written submissions can be:

-hand delivered to the editor

-placed in the Bulletin envelope in the church vestibule.

-mailed to: 300 East Main Street, Carnegie, PA 15106

-e-mailed to: kapeluck@verizon.net

We welcome you today

We would like to remind our visitors of the following;:

- ❖ All people are encouraged to participate in the sacred services of our Church. We hope that you will be able to worship as well as have fellowship with us. Should you wish any information about the Orthodox Faith or this parish in particular, please see the rector or any member of the church. We are able to place you on our mailing list.
- ❖ Only Orthodox Christians may receive the Eucharist (Holy Communion) in the Orthodox Church. In like manner, Orthodox Christians may not receive the sacraments in a non-Orthodox Church. While we hope that one day all Christians will find unity and be able to approach the chalice of our Lord together, we observe the teachings of the Church that the Eucharist is a gift of unity and not a means of unity.

We remind our faithful and visitors of the following guidelines concerning the Holy Sacraments in the Orthodox Church.

- ❖ Orthodox Christians are urged to receive Holy Communion frequently.
- ❖ Communicants should be at peace with others before approaching the chalice (Mt 5:23-24)
- ❖ Realize the importance of making a thorough examination of sins and transgressions against God, ourselves and others and having prayed for forgiveness before coming to Holy Communion.
- ❖ Frequent communicants should come to Holy Confession at least four times a year (during the four fasting periods of the year) and additionally when an examination of conscience reveals the necessity to do so in order to heal any sinful behavior.
- ❖ Communicants should fast from all foods and liquids from the evening before receiving Holy Communion.
- ❖ Communicants should read prayers in preparation for receiving Holy Communion.
- ❖ All Orthodox Christians must receive the sacraments at least once a year.
- ❖ Those who are late for Divine Liturgy (after the reading of the Epistle and Gospel) should not approach the chalice.
- ❖ Those who are ill or who have special physical needs are exempt from the above guidelines.
- ❖ Infants and children (up to the age of seven) who are Orthodox Christians may receive Holy Communion and are exempt from the above guidelines.

Thank you for gathering to worship with us today. Together we have glorified the One God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. May we be brought closer to one another and closer to God by following the eternal teachings of our Lord.

Нагадуємо нашнім гостям., що:

ми заохочуємо всіх до участі у Священній Літургії в нашій Церкві; ми сподіваємося, що Ви зможете не лише молитися тут, але й стати членом нашої громади. Якщо Ви хочете отримати якусь додаткову інформацію про Православну віру, чи, зокрема, про нашу парафію, звертайтеся, будь ласка, до отця настоятеля чи до будь-кого із членів нашої парафії. Ми можемо внести вашу адресу до парафіяльного списку розсилки;

лише православні християни можуть отримати Євхаристію (Святе Причастя) у православної церкви і, відповідно, православні християни не можуть отримувати святого причастя у неправославної церкві. Плекаючи надію на те, що у майбутньому всі християни досягнуть єдності і зможуть разом пити із чаші нашого Господа, ми дотримуємося вчення церкви про те, що Євхаристія - це дар єдності, а не засіб до єдності.

НАГАДУЄМО НАШИМ ВІРНИМ І ГОСТЯМ ПРО ПРАВИЛА, ЩО СТОСУЮТЬСЯ СВЯТОГО ПРИЧАСТЯ У ПРАВОСЛАВНІЙ ЦЕРКВІ:

ми спонукаємо православних християн часто ходити до Святого Причастя;

ті, хто причащаються, повинні бути у мирі з іншими перш, нас підійти до євхаристичної чаші (Св.Матвій 5:23-24);

перед тим, як прийти на Святе Причастя, дуже важливо ретельно осмислити гріхи і порушення, які було вчинено проти Бога, нас самих та інших і помолитися за їх відпущення;

тим, хто часто причащається, слід приходити на святу сповідь принаймні чотири рази на рік (під час кожного із чотирьох щорічних постів);

ті, хто причащається, повинні з вечора перед прийняттям Святого Причастя, припинити вживання всякої їжі і напоїв;

ті, хто причащається, повинні шляхом молитов підготувати себе до прийняття причастя;

всі православні християни повинні, принаймні, раз на рік отримати Святе Причастя;

ті, хто спізнився на Божественну Літургію (прийшов після того, як було прочитано Апостол і Євангеліє) не можуть підходити до чаші; хворі, і ті, хто має обмежені фізичні м'якості, звільняються від вище викладених вимог;

немовлята та діти до семи років, які належать до Православної християнської віри, можуть отримувати Святе Причастя і звільняються від вище викладених вимог;

Причастя і звільняються від вище викладених вимог;

Дякуємо за те, що Ви прийшли помолитися з нами сьогодні у церкві Ісуса Христа. Разом з вами ми віддали славу Єдиному Господу, Отцеві, і Синові, і Духові Святому. Нехай дотримування вічного вчення нашого Господа наблизить нас один до одного Богу

HIEROMARTYR CYPRIAN AND VIRGIN MARTYR JUSTINA OF NIGODEMIA

TROPARION TO THE RESURRECTION TONE 2

When Thou didst descend to death, O Life Immortal, Thou didst slay hell with the splendor of Thy Godhead! And when from the depths Thou didst raise the dead, all the powers of heaven cried out; O Giver of Life, Christ our God! Glory to Thee!

TROPARION TONE 4

You abandoned ungodly darkness, becoming a light of truth; You were illustrious as a pastor;
You were glorified in contest:
O righteous Father Cyprian together with godly Justina, Intercede for us before God the Creator of all!

KONTAKION - TONE 1

You turned from the art of sorcery to the knowledge of God,
and were shown forth as a skillful healer for the world,
Cyprian, inspired by God.
Together with Justina you grant cures to those who honor you;
with her, pray to the Master who loves mankind that He may save our souls.

KONTAKION TO THE RESURRECTION TONE 2

Hell became afraid, O Almighty Savior, seeing the miracle of Thy Resurrection from the tomb! The dead arose! Creation, with Adam, beheld this and rejoiced with Thee, and the world, O my Savior, praises Thee forever.

PROKIEMON TONE 2

The Lord is my strength and my song, and He is my salvation.

Verse: The Lord hath chastened and corrected me; but He has not given me over unto death.

LESSON FROM THE SECOND EPISTLE OF ST PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

(c. 9, v. 6-11)

Brethren, everyone, who has sown sparingly, will also reap sparingly, and everyone, who has sown generously, will also reap generously. Everyone must give whatever he has decided on, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

Remember that God has the power to supply you abundantly with every blessing. Thus, you will always have enough for every situation and you will be able to supply abundantly for every good work. As the Scripture says: "He scatters his gifts to the poor. His charity endures forever."

May God, who provides seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your resources and increase the harvest of your charity. May he enrich you in every way for every act of generosity, which will make us offer thanksgiving to God.

2 ДО КОРИНТЯН 9:6-11

Пам'ятайте: хто скупю посіє, той і пожене скупю. Хто ж сіє щедру, той і врожай матиме багатий. Нехай кожен жертвує так, як вирішив у своєму серці, без жалю. Адже Бог любить тих, хто дає з радістю. Бог може збагатити вас усілякими дарами, та так, що завжди мали б ви у всьому достаток і навіть надлишок для всіляких добрих справ. Як сказано у Святому Писанні:

«Дарує щедру Він і бідним подає. І доброта його ніколи не минає». Хто дає зерно сіячеві, і хліб на поживу, Той забезпечить та примножить ваше насіння і збільшить врожай праведності вашої. І станете ви багатими всім, щоб були ви щедрими завжди. Бо щедрість ваша через нас створює багато подячних молитв Богіві.

ALLELUIA

v. The Lord answer you in the day of trouble! The Name of the God of Jacob protect you!

v. Save the king, O Lord, and hear us on the day we call!

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE

(с. 5, v. 1-11)

At that time, Jesus stood by the Lake of Gennesaret and saw two ships on the shore of the lake. The fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He went into one of them, which belonged to Simon, and asked him to push off a little from the land. Then he sat down and preached to the people from the ship.

When he finished his sermon, he said to Simon: "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon answered him: "Master, we worked all night and caught nothing, but as you tell me to do it, I will lower the nets."

When they had done so, they enclosed such a shoal of fish that their nets began to break. So they beckoned to their partners in the other ship to come and help them. They came and filled both ships so heavily that they began to sink.

When Simon saw it, he knelt before Jesus and said to him: "Do not approach me, O Lord, for I am a sinful man." For he and all his companions, as well as James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners, were amazed at the haul of fish they had taken.

Then Jesus said to Simon: "Do not be afraid. From now on you will be fishers of men." Thereupon they brought their boats to land, left everything, and followed him.

Від Луки 5:1-11

Сталося так, що коли Ісус стояв біля Генісаретського озера, навколо Нього зібралися люди й слухали Слово Боже. Ісус побачив два човни на березі озера. З них якраз зійшли рибалки й мили свої сіті. Ісус увійшов до одного з човнів, який належав Симонові, й попросив господаря трохи відплисти від берега. А сам сів і почав з човна навчати натовп, який стояв біля води.

Скінчивши говорити, Ісус сказав Симонові: «Відпливи на глибину, закинь сіті, та зловиш багато риби». Симон відповів: «Учителю, ми тяжко трудилися цілу ніч і нічого не зловили, але якщо Ти так кажеш, я закину сіті».

Зробивши так, вони зловили дуже багато риби, аж сіті почали рватися. То гукнули вони товаришів на іншому човні, щоб ті допомогли їм. Ті підпливли, й обидва човни так наповнилися рибою, що мало не почали тонути. Побачивши це, Симон-Петро припав до Ісусових колін і вигукнув: «Залиши мене, Господи, бо я чоловік грішний!» Петро казав так, бо, як і всі інші, хто були з ним, він був приголомшений такою рибальською здобиччю. Так само вражені були й Симонові товариші Яків та Іоан, Зеведееві сини. То Ісус сказав Симонові: «Не бійся. Відтепер ти ловитимеш душі людські!»

Вони повитягали човни на берег, все полишили й пішли за Ісусом.

Prayer List

Heavenly Father, Who sent Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to be the Physician of our souls and bodies, Who came to heal sickness and infirmity, Who healed the paralytic, and brought back to life the daughter of Jairus, Who healed the woman who had been sick for twelve years by the mere touch of the hem of your robe, visit and heal also your beloved servants:

by the power and grace of Your Christ. Grant them the patience that comes from believing that You are always at work in our lives to bring good out of evil. Grant them strength of body, mind and soul. Raise them up from the bed of pain. Grant them full recovery. May they experience the same surge of healing power flow through their bodies, as did the sick woman who touched your robe. For we, too, are touching your robe today, dear Lord, through this our prayer. We approach you with the same faith she did. Grant them the gift of health. For You alone are the source of healing and to You we offer glory, praise and thanksgiving in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

ORTHODOX CLERGY BROTHERHOOD

Dear Reverend Fathers and Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

“Christ is among us! He is and ever shall be!”

“The giver of every good and perfect gift has called upon us to mimic God’s giving...” (St. Nicholas of Myra).

By the grace of God, as we near the end of another calendar year, knowing that many of our parishes are engaged in philanthropic endeavors, as well as preparing parish budgets for the new year, we come to you with an added appeal to support the ministry of our Orthodox Clergy Brotherhood of Greater Pittsburgh.

It is natural to ask why does the clergy brotherhood need financial support?

In the past year and a half, we have had disbursement of funds for the following causes:

$500 to Feed Our Students lunch program.

$1000 honorariums for the Sunday of Orthodoxy.

$500 for medical assistance for an ailing priest.

$500 outreach ministry.

$700 for the Orthodox Mission in Guatemala.

As, one can see, there is nothing frivolous that we allocate funds to support. Additionally, we wish we could do more! Even though, many parishes and some diocesan entities contribute to some of these and other worthy causes, nevertheless, it is important that our local Pan-Orthodox Clergy Brotherhood, is able to respond in an appropriate manner to manifest our unity in faith and our unity in the One Body of Christ.

We thank you for your soul-searching consideration of our appeal and humbly ask that you will help us support future needs of the faithful. To donate, please make checks payable to “The Orthodox Clergy Brotherhood of Greater Pittsburgh.”

Checks can be given to your priest to bring to a Clergy Brotherhood meeting, or mailed to our treasurer, Fr. Fred Pfeil. PO Box 632, Dunlevy, PA 15432-0632

Your Unworthy Servant at Christ’s Holy Altar, Father Joseph Cervo

THANK YOU FOR THESE RECENT DONATIONS:

Synaxarion of Saints Cyprian and Justina

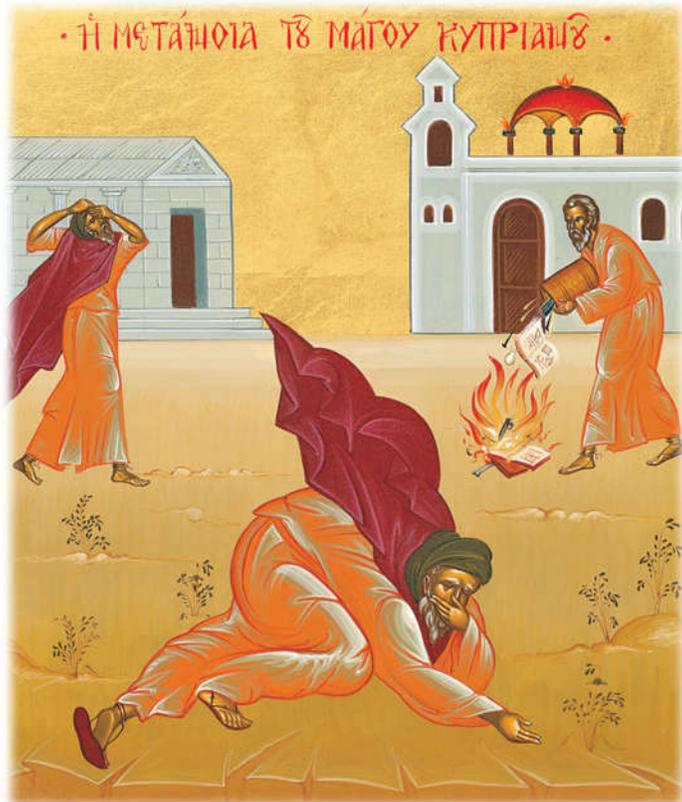

*Satan is pained seeing his old friend,
Lovingly welcome the sword and dying with Justina.
On the second Cyprian together with Justina was beheaded.*

Cyprian was from Carchidon, or Carthage, in Libya, but passed his time in Antioch of Syria during the reign of Emperor Decius (249-251). He was a rich noble, as well as a philosopher, and a magician at his pinnacle. He was brought to the Christian faith in the following manner.

A Greek man named Aglaias fell in love with a virgin maiden, who was a Christian by faith, from Antioch, whose name was Justina. Unable to attain what he desired, what did he do? He went to the divine Cyprian, and begged that with his help he would be able to achieve his evil purpose. Cyprian read his books of magic, and sent many and various demons to beguile the maiden, and attract her towards the passionate love of Aglaias. Then he sent to her the leader of the demons. However, he was unable to accomplish his purpose. Being sensible he realized by this the invincible power of Christ, by which the maiden put the demons to shame, and without avail they returned to their sender, and he immediately turned from his delusion, and believed in Christ. In order to give the Bishop who was to baptize him more certainty that he was firm in his faith in Christ, he immediately brought out all his books of magic, and he burned them all in the presence of the Bishop. Thus he became a sheep in the rational flock of Christ through Holy Baptism. He was then ordained in steps as Reader, Subdeacon, Deacon, Presbyter and lastly he was ordained the Bishop of Carthage.* He also renamed Justina, who was previously known as Justa, and she was numbered among the Deacons of the Church, and made her the Mother and Abbess of the hermitages found there. Having increased his flock by his words, and with his God-loving and virtuous life, and being filled from sunrise to sunset with the knowledge of God, he was finally brought before Emperor Decius. He therefore stood before him, and appearing above every flattery and threat, he was exiled. Because even in exile he did not cease taking care of his flock, and continuously supporting them through his letters, and by this he was victorious in erasing every delusion of idolatry, for this he was arrested by the count of the East named Eutolmios, and he was imprisoned together with the virgin Justina. Later they stood together in judgment at Damascus. Having both boldly confessed Christ, for this reason Cyprian was suspended and scraped, and Justina was struck in the face without mercy. They were then put into a lit furnace. But with the power of Christ, they were preserved unharmed from the torment. This wondrous thing was seen by the colleague of the count, whose name was Athanasios, and he senselessly broke down. And wanting to show his gods were higher and better than Christ, he called upon the false gods Zeus and Asclepius, and running he leapt into the lit furnace. Immediately the impious one was burned up. Considering what he should do, the count decided to send the Saints to Nicomedia to the emperor at the time Claudius (268-270). When Claudius learned of the steadfast and unalterable minds of the Saints, he had their heads cut off. In this way the thrice-blessed ones received the unfading crown of martyrdom. Their honorable relics were taken secretly by some Christians, who had just come from Rome, and they returned to Rome once again, bringing with them the written testimonies of the Saints. And they treasured the relics on a famous hill of the city of Rome, where they work many healings for those who run to them with faith.

Apolytikion in the Third Tone

Thou didst abandon ungodly darkness. and become a light of the truth. Thou wast illustrious as a pastor, and wast glorified in contest. O Venerable Father Cyprian, together with godly Justina pray to God the Creator for us.

Kontakion in the First Tone

Thou didst renounce magic for the knowledge of God, and become a wise healer for the world. Together with Justina thou dost cure those who honour thee: with her pray to Christ our God the Lover of mankind that He may save our souls.
